

Harvest Time

Paul Rader, 1921

Lance Brenton Latham

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 115. The score is divided into several systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are arranged in three columns, corresponding to three different verses. The first system contains the first three lines of the main text. The second system is labeled 'Refrain' and contains the next three lines. The third system contains the following three lines. The fourth system contains the next three lines. The fifth system contains the final three lines. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and moving lines in the bass clef, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.
