

I Have Settled the Question

Haldor Lillenas, 1919

$\text{♩} = 117$

1. I re - mem - ber when the Lord spoke to my soul, I could
 2. I no long - er walk the ways of sin - ful - ness, But I
 3. I will choose the ho - ly joys that al - ways last, And re-
 4. O - thers may de - ny the Lord and live in sin, But the feel the heav - y bur - den from me roll When He dai - ly tread the paths of righ - teous - ness Since the

 - ject sin's plea - sures that will soon be past, To the race that I have en - tered I must win, Through the spoke the gra - cious words, "Wilt thou be whole?" Then I set-tled the ques-tion for-day the Lord has come my life to bless I have set-tled the ques-tion fortrea - sures of true worth I'm hold-ing fast, I have set-tled the ques-tion for-pearl - y gates I mean to en - ter in, I have set-tled the ques-tion for-

Refrain

- ev-er.
 - ev-er. I have set-tled the ques-tion, hal-le - lu - jah! I will nev-er turn back from the
 - ev-er.
 - ev-er.

nar - row way. I am go - ing through with Je - sus, hal - le - lu - jah! Till I reach the gates of glo-ry some sweet day.

