

Someone Shall Go

Sarah Geraldine Stock (1838-1898)

$\text{♩} = 160$

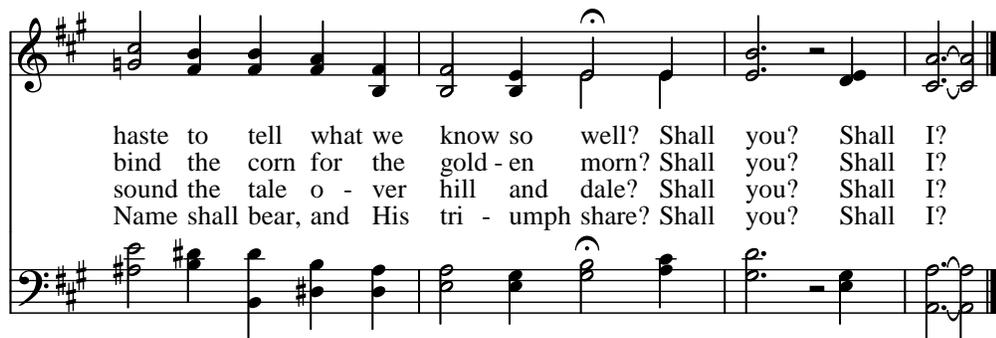

1. Some-one shall go at the Mas - ter's word O - ver the sea to the
2. Some-one shall ga - ther the sheaves for Him, Some-one shall bind them with
3. Some-one shall tra - vel with ea - ger feet O - ver the mount - ain and
4. Some-one shall car - ry His ban - ner high, Wav - ing it out where the lands a - far, Tell - ing to those who have nev - er heard What His joy - ful hand, Some-one shall toil through the sha - dows dim, For the through the wild, Bring - ing the news of re - demp - tion sweet To each foe holds sway, Some in His ser - vice shall live and die, And with won - der - ful mer - cies are. Shall it be you— shall it be I? Who shall morn in the heav - 'nly land. Shall it be you— shall it be I? Who shall wan - der - ing sin - ful child. Shall it be you— shall it be I? Who shall Je - sus shall win the day! Shall it be you— shall it be I? Who His haste to tell what we know so well? Shall you? Shall I? bind the corn for the gold - en morn? Shall you? Shall I? sound the tale o - ver hill and dale? Shall you? Shall I?

Name shall bear, and His tri - umph share? Shall you? Shall I?