

Christ, from Whom All Blessings Flow

1. Christ from whom all bles-sings flow, per - fec - ting the
 2. Join us, in one spi - rit join, let us still re -
 3. Move and ac - tu - ate and guide, di - verse gifts to
 4. Ne - ver from thy ser - vice move, need - ful to each
 5. Ma - ny are we now, and one, we who Je - sus
 6. Love, like death, hath all des - troyed, re - ndered all dis - saints be - low, hear us, who thy na - ture share, ceive of thine; still for more on thee we call, each di - vide; placed ac - cor - ding to thy will,

 o - ther prove; use the grace on each bes - towed, have put on; there is nei - ther bond nor free, tinc-tions void; names and sects and par - ties fall;

who thy — my - stic bo - dy are.
 thou who — fil - lest all in all.
 let us — all our work ful - fill;
 tem - pered — by the art of God.
 male nor — fe - male, Lord, in thee.
 thou, O — Christ, art all in all!