

Alone

Jessie Anne Lee, 2015

Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

♩=105

1. He came to Pha - raoh, the king who could kill Him if he had the
2. E - li - jah faith - ful - ly preached Go - d's word Though he was near - ly
3. See Ma - ry weep b - e - side th - e tomb, Of One who gave her
4. Christ stood and sobbed whi - le watch - i - ng them, "Je - ru - sa - lem! Je - mind and the will; But Mo - ses stood his ground and cried, "Oh killed by the sword; Out - ran a char - iot and hid from the king Then life fro - m gloom, Who healed her and re - stored puri - ty Yet

- ru - s - a - lem! I would have ga - thered you to Me, Yet

Refrain
let my peo - ple go, not die!"
cried to God, too wea - ry to think. "A - lone, a - lone, I feel a - lone; O now they said so dead was He!
you would not; I came for thee!"

God, for-sake me not Your child!"