The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with chords and single notes.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The music continues from the first system, ending with a double bar line. A small number '7' is written above the first measure of the upper staff.

O, what can little hands do
to please the King of heaven?
The little hands some work may try to help the poor in misery;
such grace to mine be given!

O, what can little lips do
to please the King of heaven?
The little lips can praise and pray,
and gentle words of kindness say:
such grace to mine be given!

O, what can little eyes so
to please the King of Heaven?
The little eyes can upward look,
and learn to read God's holy book:
such grace to mine be given!

O, what can little hearts do
to please the King of heaven?
Our hearts, if God his Spirit send,
can love and trust their Saviour friend:
such grace to mine be give!

Though small is all that we can do
to please the King of heaven,
when hearts and hands and lips unite,
to serve the Saviour with delight,
then perfect Grace is given!
