

Christ Will Come Again

John F. Taylor, 1924

John F. Taylor

$\text{♩} = 91$

1. When the Sav - ior went to Hea - ven, To His home on high, Left the
2. Je - sus left this earth for Hea - ven, That bright home a - bove, To the 3. When He com - eth, all the faith - ful Will His face be - hold, And the pro - mise to His child - ren, To re - turn by and by; His dis - faith - ful ones is giv - en A sweet home filled with love; Let us re - sur - rect - ion trum - pet Will the glad news un - fold; All the

- ci - ples thro' the ag - es Have be - lieved that word; They have watch and wait with pa - tience That de - light - ful hour, When our right - eous ones will hear Him, From their graves a - rise, And be thought up - on His pro - mise And ex - pect their Lord.

Refrain
Lord will come from glo - ry In His migh - ty power. He is car - ried home to Hea - ven, Far be - yond the skies.

com-ing, Christ is com-ing, He is com-ing from on Christ is com-ing, by and by, high (hal-le-lu-jah!) He is com-ing, sure-ly com-ing, And the Christ is com-ing, by and by,

day is draw-ing nigh.