

Don't Forget to Pray

Miriam E. Arnold, 1906

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=110

1. When the day is dark and lone - ly, Don't for - get to pray;
2. When the sun is bright - ly shin - ing On your pil - grim way,
3. O the bliss this won - drous friend - ship Will your soul af - ford,

Prayer will make your path - way bright - er, Drive the clouds a - way.
Let the Sav - ior share your glad - ness, Don't for - get to pray.
Dwell - ing thus in clos - est un - ion With your lov - ing Lord;

For your ten - der heav'n - ly Fa - ther List - ens when you call, And in lov - ing
For He longs to walk be - side you, Your must trust - ed friend, And a - bide thro'
Till in Heav'n you shall be - hold Him, See Him face to face, And through - out e -

Refrain
wis - dom an - swers, Trust Him for it all.
storm and sun - shine To your jour - ney's end. Breathe out all your joys and sor - rows
- ter - nal ag - es Praise Him for His grace.

In His list-ening ear; Is your way a maze be-fore you? He will make it clear.

Walk-ing thus, and talk-ing with Him In com-mun-ion blest, "In the sec-ret of His pre-sence," He will give you rest.