

Room for All

Fronie Bell Turner, 1892

Frederic G. Gleason, arr. Benjamin Chase, 1909

$\text{♩} = 125$

1. Is there room for all the chil - dren In the home a - bove, In the
2. O so ma - ny, ma - ny thou - sands, In the by - ways dwell; Some that
3. Are the bless - èd por - tals o - pen, Ev - er wide and free? And the sweet and ho - ly man - sion Of the King of love? All to come and ne - ver knew the Sav - ior, Some that love Him well; Hath He place in way so plain be - fore us, Ev - ery eye can see? Then we'll glad - ly, serve Him ev - er Doth He free - ly, free - ly call; In His king - dom His dear man - sion For the poor, the poor and small? For the low - ly glad - ly fol - low At His ho - ly, ho - ly call, For with - in His

where He dwell - eth, Is there room for all?
lit - tle child - ren, Is there room for all?
hap - py king - dom, There is room for all.