

When We Reach the Bright Mansions

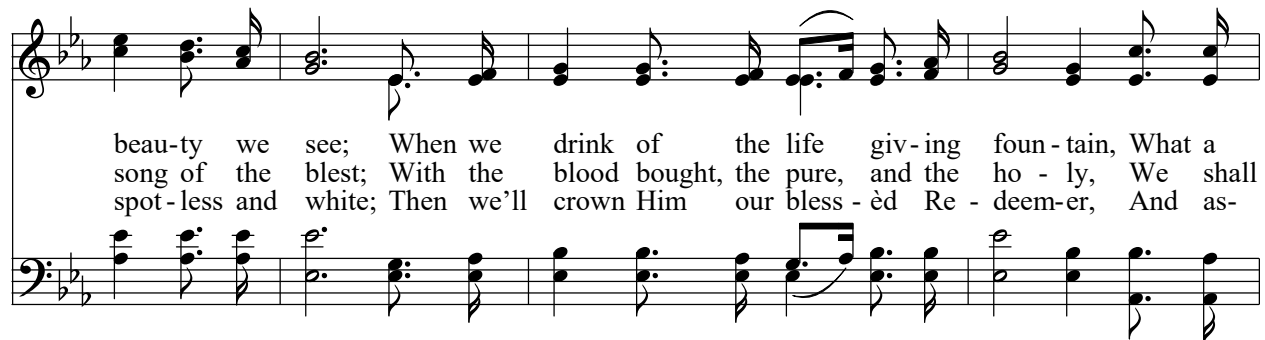

Mary Batchelder, 1891

D. C. Wright

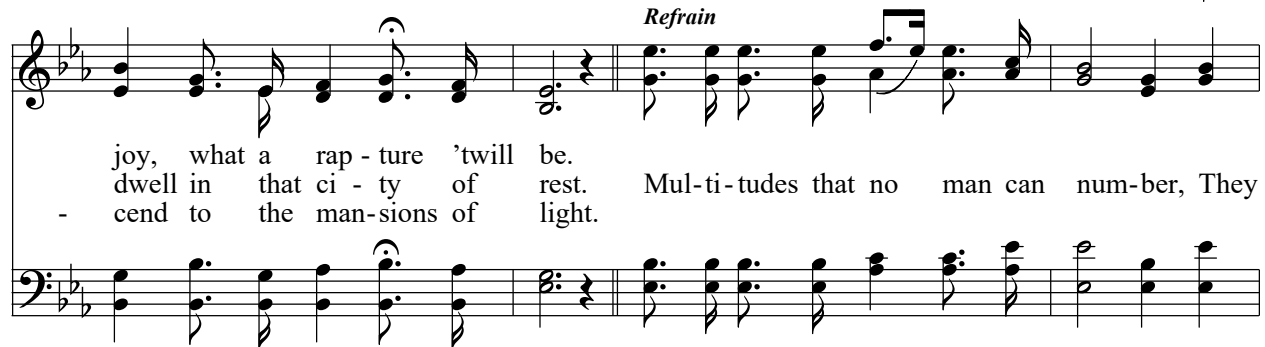

♩=98

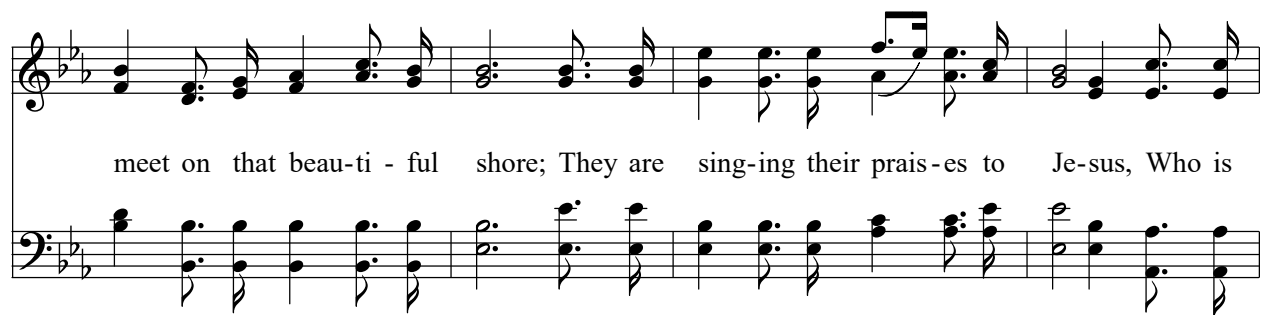

1. When we reach those bright man - sions in glo - ry, And the King in His
2. When we pass thro' the "swell - ings of Jor - dan," We shall sing the new
3. Yes, we'll sing the "new song of re - demp-tion," With our gar - ments all beau-ty we see; When we drink of the life giv-ing foun-tain, What a song of the blest; With the blood bought, the pure, and the ho - ly, We shall spot-less and white; Then we'll crown Him our bless - ed Re - deem-er, And as-joy, what a rap - ture 'twill be.

Refrain
dwell in that ci - ty of rest. Mul-ti-tudes that no man can num-ber, They
- cend to the man-sions of light.

meet on that beau-ti - ful shore; They are sing-ing their prais-es to Je-sus, Who is wor-thy of praise ev - er - more